RUNAWAY CARS

Cause a Serious Freight Wreck Near Elm Grove.

THREE TRAINMEN INJURED.

None Fatally, However--The Run-aways Were Water Tanks and Ran Back from Point Mills, Colliding With East Bound Freight at Feay's Cut--A Dozen Cars Wrecked and Traffic Delayed Until To-day.

Two runaway water tank cars caused a bad wreck on the Baltimore & Ohio last night at 8:30 o'clock, at Feay's cut, near the "S" bridge, about midway between Elm Grove and Triadelphia.
Nearly a dozen cars were wrecked and three men were injured. The wreck delayed traffic for the rest of the night and it will probably be noon to-day before the track is cleared.

The runaways became detached from a freight at Point Mills, about eleven miles east of the city, and as there is a big grade from this point to the river, the two cars ran back at a good speed.
They crashed into engine No. 544, of the first section of freight train No. 82, which was east bound, at Feay's cut, and in an instant there was a mass of jumbled-up cars. The water tank cars piled over the engine, and five freight cars attached to the engine were derailed while others in the train were shattered into kindling wood. About a dozen cars in all were damaged. One was thrown over onto the track of the Suburban Electric line, about thirty feet away, and this car blocked traffic on the electric road, forcing transfers for the rest of the evening between Elm Grove and Triadelphia.

In the engine cab were Engineer Claude Woodcock and Brakeman B. F.
Brandt, both of Glenwood, Pa., and the fireman, name unknown. The collision was so sudden that they hadn't a moment's warning. Woodcock was the most unfortunate of the trio. He was planed under the mass of twisted iron and steel in his cab, sustaining fractures of his right arm and left leg. The injury to his arm was particularly painful, the arm being driven back almost into the socket, and amputation was later performed at the City hospital, whither he and Brakeman Brandt were removed. Brandt's injury was to his right shoulder. The fireman escaped with an injured jaw.

The injured were first removed to the home of Anton Hess, near the scene of the wreck. About 10 o'clock the Baltimore & Ohio officials sent out an engine and passenger coach which conveyed Woodcock and Brandt into the city, the city ambulance removing them to the City hospital.

A wrecking crew began the work of clearing the track about 11 p. m., and it is expected trains can pass through this forenoon. An idea of the damage may be gained from the fact that at one point there was a pile, two-story high, of trucks and shattered box cars. The cars were empty. The damage loss will be considerable.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles, as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease of life." Only

Clothing Sense.

Any clothing is clothing, true, so any coffee is coffee, so any flour is flour, but grades differ. You want the best. It's so with clothing; there are grades--you want the best. If you understood clothing as well as you do coffee or flour, it would be easy to determine, but you don't. How should you? When you are going to buy a commodity whose value you don't know, it is best to pick out a house whose reputation for honest, square dealing is established beyond a doubt, and trust to their experience and reputation for good, honest treatment. The HUB CLOTHIERS have that reputation--strictly one price to everybody--a black and white guarantee as to quality, and our money back guarantee in any and every case you demand it. There are many dealers in clothing, but only one HUB CLOTHIERS--theirs are stylish, good weaves and fit. If you still have doubts look us over.
